

Elkins to speak on University tv

University President Wilson H. Elkins will make his second appearance on closed circuit television to answer questions about the University.

Television Workshop will present "A conversation with President Wilson H. Elkins," first in a series of interviews featuring prominent guests.

On the show, which will be broadcast to all of the closed circuit televisions on campus, President Elkins will be asked to comment on the drinking issue, the parking problems, the tuition increases, the housing restrictions, the grade penalty for "cuts," the University's academic ratings and the football team.

John Haifley, producer of the series, said the program may be seen on channels 3 and 6 today at 11:50 a.m., 1:50 p.m. and 2:50 p.m. It will also be shown tomorrow at 8:50 and 9:50.
